Lillian Müller is probably the most featured Playmate of the Year, in the history of Playboy Magazine, garnering eight Playboy covers. Many consider this sizzling seductress to be the most beautiful former Playmate ever.

"I credit two men with having changed my life over the past 30 years. Hugh Hefner has made all of this possible. With all the beautiful women in his life, he gave me love and affection. Without Hef, I would still be a school teacher in Norway. The other influential man in my life is Maurice Rinaldi, the leading international fashion photographer. Maurice is an incredible talent. And he has given so much, taking the time to shoot my first calendar ever to celebrate my turning 50." —Lillian Müller
